

Pets in sheltered housing

We are happy for residents to keep pets within their sheltered properties as long as tenancy obligations are not broken and they do not cause a nuisance or annoyance to neighbours.

The only exception to this relates to sheltered housing complexes where we allow residents to bring pets with them when they move in. However, we respectfully ask that any larger pets should not be replaced except in special circumstances.

©2009 TOR
Built on OneStopCMS

Sign In